

waste management

Containers approved for the transport of Clinical Waste in PEHD (UN3291 e ADR standard - unit no. 6)

Jcoplastic S.p.A. is paying special attention to clinical waste disposal and has developed a range of refuse containers from 240 L to 1100L. Our 240 L, 360 L, 660L, 770L, 1000L and 1100L are approved for the collection and transport of infectious waste meeting the current European standards.

- Body and lid are one piece injection moulded and realised in PEHD of first fusion, guaranteed and certified.
- Wholly recyclable raw material, resistant to U.V. and infrared rays, to acids and alkalis, to high and low temperatures.
- Flat lid with manual opening with hinges on back side of the body and equipped with lift handle along the front side of the body.
- Provided with a single snap lock by triangular key placed on the front of the body.
- Body is equipped with four handles, obtained by fusion.
- Suitable for all DIN lifting equipment.
- Lack of sharp and spiky corners.
- Lack of drainage plug.
- Four wheeled containers are fitted with no-marking rotating wheels of light grey colour, rubber made, diameter 200 mm.
- Front wheels with independent braking system by pedal.
- All our containers are certified according UNI EN 840 (UNI 10571 e DIN 30700) and they have obtained GS quality certification issued by LGA-GS of Nurnberg (Germany).
- Standard colour: yellow
- Marking: two colours logo class 6 infectious waste (hazardous waste)
- Test : Clinical Waste Unspecified N.O.S: UN3291

240

360

660

770

1000

1100

(mm)	240	360	660	770	1000	1100
D	580	620	767	767	1100	1100
W	730	865	1360	1360	1370	1370
H	1070	1110	1200	1340	1315	1365

The products 240L, 360L, 660L, 770L, 1000L, 1100L are ONU ADR certified for the transport of clinical waste.

"no marking" wheel

optional male lifting device DIN-EN